

Index

This index is necessarily selective. It can be used in conjunction with the electronic version of the text, published simultaneously by the University of Toronto Press, and with de Beer's great (in both bulk and merit) volume-length index to The Diary of John Evelyn, either in print, or in the version available through Oxford Scholarly Editions Online.

Entries for Evelyn's correspondents list page numbers for their letters in bold. The page numbers are preceded by the letter number enclosed in parentheses. Page numbers in italics refer to figures and plates. References to "the Protestant lady's library" refer to the list Evelyn provided to Anne Spencer in Letter 543.

Biographical information is referenced under "about" and found at the beginning of an entry. Incidental mentions are indexed under "mentioned" and are found at the end of an entry.
